

CONTENTS

List of Maps	xi
List of Chronologies	xiii
Introduction	xv

CHAPTER 1: PREHISTORY

Beginnings	4
Evolution	4
Hominids	5
Human qualities	6
Homo erectus	8
Hunting	10
A New Grasp of the World	10
The coming of fire	11
Early society	12
Homo sapiens	14
The Neanderthals	14
Physical type	16
Humanity in the Old Stone Age	17
Tool-making	18
Life styles	19
The first art	20
The Coming of Agriculture	22
The Fertile Crescent	22
A changing world	24
The Neolithic Revolution	26
Technological change	27
The coming of metallurgy	28
At the Edge of History	30

CHAPTER 2: THE EARLIEST CIVILIZATIONS

The Roots of Civilization	36
The first civilizations	36
The interplay of culture in the Fertile Crescent	38
Sumer	39
Writing	40
Sumerian religion	42
Sumerian life	43
Political change	46

Mesopotamia after Sumer	48
Babylon	48
Babylonian thought	49
Ancient Egypt	50
Egyptian kingship	53
Egyptian building	53
Religion	55
Egyptian art and technology	56
Women in ancient Egypt	57
The Old and Middle Kingdoms	58
The New Kingdom	60
The era of decline	60
Asia's First Civilizations	63
Early Indian Civilization	64
Aryan India	66
Early Indian religion	69
Ancient China	70
Shang China	72
The Chou era	72
Early Chinese society	74
Iron and cities	76
Confucius and Chinese culture	78

CHAPTER 3: FOUNDATIONS OF OUR WORLD

Interplay and Interchange	82
Trade and travel	82
War and technology	84
New differences	84
Aegean Civilization	85
Minoan	85
The Mycenaeans	89
The Phoenicians	91
The First Greeks	92
The Dorians	92
Empires and Peoples on the Near Eastern Mainland	93
The Hittites	93
Hebrews	94

The first monotheistic religion	96
Kings and prophets	97
The Last Age of Mesopotamian Empire	98
The last Babylonian empire	100
The Emergence of Persia	101
The Achaemenid emperors	103
The Mediterranean World	104
Greece	106
The polis	108
A new civilization	109
Language and Hellenism	109
Greek religion	112
The Greek sphere	114
Italy and the Etruscans	115
The Greek Miracle	117
The Athenian ascendancy	118
Greek life	119
Slavery	119
Women in ancient Greece	120
The Greek intellect	122
Philosophy	123
The first historians	124
The Peloponnesian War	126
CHAPTER 4: THE ROMAN WORLD
Macedon and Hellenism	132
Alexander the Great	132
Alexander's successors: the Hellenistic world	134
The Rise of Roman Power	137
The early Republic	137
The Punic Wars	139
The decay of the Republic	140
Pax romana	141
The end of the Republic	143
Christianity	144
The Jews in the Roman empire	145
Jesus of Nazareth	146
St Paul	147
The Roman Empire	148
The Roman legacy	149
Christianity and the empire	153
Persecution and progress	155
The Frontiers	156
Parthia and Persia	156
Europe: the lines	158
Barbarian pressure	160

Diocletian and Constantine	166
The end of empire in the West	164
Changes and continuities	166

CHAPTER 5: CONTESTS OF CIVILIZATIONS

The Beginnings of Byzantium	176
Justinian	179
Religion and the state	172
The Re-making of the Near East	175
Persia and Byzantium	176
A New World Religion: Islam	177
Muhammad the Prophet	178
A new religion	178
A religion of conquest	179
The Arab Islamic World	181
The Abassid caliphate	181
Women in Islam	182
Islamic learning and the arts	182
Islam's Further Boundaries	184
Byzantium's Great Age: the Making of Slav Europe	186
The Slav peoples	187
Kiev Rus	187
An emerging eastern Europe	189
Inner Asian Peoples	190
The Turks	192
Chinghis Khan	192
The End of Byzantium	195
The Crusades	196
Christendom's New Neighbour	199
CHAPTER 6: WORLDS APART: THE GREAT ASIAN TRADITIONS
Maurya India	204
Buddhism	204
Asoka	206
Hindu India	207
The Gupta	208
Belief and Society	208
Islamic India	209
The first Moghul emperors	211
Imperial China	212
The Ch'in	214
The Han	214

Religion in China	215
Chinese civilization	216
Bureaucracy	219
Continuity	221
The Later Dynastic Story	222
Classical China	223
The Sung mystery	225
Mongol China	227
The Ming	229
The Chinese Sphere and Japan	229
Japan	230
The shōgunate	231

CHAPTER 7: THE MAKING OF EUROPE

Medieval Christendom: the West	236
The origins of the Christian West	236
The papacy	237
Monasticism	239
A New European Structure	240
The Franks	242
Charlemagne	243
The beginnings of France and Germany	246
The German emperors	247
Southern Europe	250
The Norsemen	250
England	252
The Tempering of the Medieval Church	253
The sources of ecclesiastical power	254
Cluniac reform	256
Learning and culture	257
Getting a Living	257
Feudal dependences	258
Medieval kings	260
The Hinge of the Twelfth Century: Investiture	261
Papal monarchy	262
Europe's first lunges overseas: the Crusades	264
Europe's East	267
The rise of Muscovy	268
Nation-making	269
England and France	270
Spain	271
War and power	271
Late Medieval Society	272
The Black Death and after	273
Technological innovation	274
Daily life	275
The heart of a civilization	277

CHAPTER 8: DISCOVERY AND CONFRONTATION: THE MAKING OF ONE WORLD

The European Initiative	280
The Renaissance	280
Discoveries	281
The Portuguese	282
The New World	283
Africa Before Modern Times	284
The African peoples	285
Iron	286
Early cultural divisions	288
Ghana and Mali	288
Southern Africa	289
The Americas Before the Europeans	291
Olmec culture	292
The Maya	292
Inca Peru	293
Mexico	295
The Beginnings of European Colonialism	297
Spanish empire	298
Americans old and new	298
Institutions and government	299
North America	300
The Asian Sphere	303
Europeans and China	304
Japan	305
A changing country	306
Moghul India in decline	307
European arrivals	309

CHAPTER 9: EARLY MODERN TIMES

The First Signs of Global History	312
The Revolution in Agriculture	313
Europe's improvement	313
New methods	315
Rulers and Ruled	316
Dynasticism	318
The Empire and eastern Europe	320
New tendencies in government	320
Churches	322
Reformers	323
Luther	325
Protestantism and Counter-Reformation	326
Religion and war	328

A New World of Great Powers	331
New issues in international relations	334
The oceanic empires	334
Anglo-French imperial competition	338
Two Europes	339

CHAPTER 10: WORLD HISTORY IN THE MAKING

New Views and values	344
The coming of print	345
Scientific Revolutions	346
The impact of Newton	348
Enlightenment	349
New Faiths	350
Wealth and Well-being	351
International trade	351
The slave trade	353
Oceanic commerce	354
Increasing knowledge	356
Islam and the Western World	357
A new eastern Europe	360
Prussia and Austria	360
Poland	362
A New America	362
Rebellion	364
The United States of America	365
The French Revolution and its Outcome	366
The process of change	366
The birth of modern politics	368
Restoration after 1815	371
1848	373
The outcome of 1848-49	373
Nations and Nationalists	375

CHAPTER 11: THE GREAT ACCELERATION

An Optimistic Age	380
Living and Dying	381
Numbers	381
Life chances	383
Killing and Preserving	384
Medical advance and public health	384
Contraception	386
Feeding Mankind	387
Agricultural change	388
Ecological change	389

The New Face of Industry	389
Urbanization	390
Socialism	392
Society in the industrial age	394
Global Commerce	396

A New Age of Machines	399
Psychological and intellectual effects of mechanization	401
Energy	401

CHAPTER 12: THE EUROPEAN WORLD ORDER

The Forms of European Ascendancy	406
Motives and opportunities	407
Knowledge and Technology	409
Africa	409
Livingstone	409
Australian exploration	410
The Poles	411
White Settlement	411
Canada	412
Australia and New Zealand	412
South Africa	413
Latin America	415
The High Tide of Empire	417
A New World Power	419
The first expansionists	420
Slavery and secession	422
Civil War	424
The American economic surge	427
American overseas imperialism	428
The Caribbean	429
Asia in the European Age	431
China	431
The opening of China to the West	433
Concessions and decline	435
Reform and revolution	436
The British Raj in India	437
The Mutiny and its results	440
A New Asian Power	422
The Meiji restoration	443
Modernization and its limits	443
Gathering Clouds	445
New nations	445
The German ascendancy	448
Tsarist Russia	450

CHAPTER 13: THE LATEST AGE: THE LONG RUN
Recent History	456
Population	456
Growing Wealth	457
Rich and Poor	460
The industrial world	462
Communications	463
New Ways of Seeing the World	465
Determinism	465
Racialism	466
Anti-semitism	467
The Management of Nature	469
The new physics	469
Biological sciences	471
Space	472
Women	476
Political rights	476
Women and the professions	478
Women's employment	478
The non-western world	480
CHAPTER 14: THE LATEST AGE: UPHEAVAL
The Approach to Disaster	484
Sarajevo	486
The Great War 1914-18	487
The Post-war World	491
The peace settlements	492
The League of Nations	492
Institutionalized Revolution	493
The USSR	493
Survival	495
The ebbing of revolution	496
Democratic Difficulties	496
Fascism	497
A drift to authoritarianism	498
Weimar Germany	498
Adolf Hitler	499
The Economy 1919-39	500
American slump and world depression	501
A Troubled Asia	502
Revolution in China	502
Revolution in the USSR	506
Stalin	507
The American Alternative	508
The New Deal	508
Revolution in Germany	509
The Nazi revolution	509
Towards a Second World War	511
The Second World War 1939-45	512
Hitler's victories	513
1941: the crucial year	514
The balance sheet	520
CHAPTER 15: THE LATEST AGE - AN ERA OF UNREST
The World of 1945	524
The United Nations Organization	524
The superpowers	525
Europe in 1945	526
Cold War	526
The Truman doctrine and Marshall Plan	527
Berlin and Korea	528
The End of the Colonial Empires	531
The new Middle East	531
The establishment of Israel	532
Imperial withdrawal in Asia	535
Indo-China	537
Decolonizing in Africa	537
New African nations	538
Apartheid	540
A New China	541
Communist China	541
International complications	543
Mao's ascendancy	544
A New East Asia	545
The Third World idea	545
The recovery of Japan	547
Cold War comes to the Western Hemisphere	548
Cuba	550
The crisis	551
The superpowers' new relationship	551
Change in the USSR	552
Change in the USA	553
The American race problem	554
American policy in Asia	555
New Dangers	558
Islamic resurgence	558
Iraq	561

Latin America after the Cuban crisis	563
Africa	565
The Emergence of a New World Order	566
China changes course	566
The end of the Cold War	568
Revolution in eastern Europe	569
The Polish lead	571
The end of the communist order	572

The End of the USSR	575
Western Europe	576
Conclusion	578
Illustration Sources	579
Index	585